IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill sets forth provisions that a school's strategic and continuous school improvement and achievement plan may include to encourage parental involvement in the school. It requires the Department of Education to make models of parental involvement plans available to schools for use in developing plans. The bill allows a school to develop a written compact between the school, the teachers, students, and students' parents setting forth expectations for students, parents, teachers, and the school. It requires each party to the compact to make a reasonable effort to comply with the compact.

Effective Date: (CCR Amended) Upon Passage; July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) The bill could require some additional one time expenditures by the Department of Education. The bill requires the Department to develop and make available models of parental involvement plans in developing the parental participation component of the strategic and continuous school improvement and achievement plan by September 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: (Revised) The plan would be implemented with existing school resources and the impact would vary from school to school.

The written compact between the school, the teachers, students, and students' parents would give the school one more tool for the school to use to assist students. Schools could experience some additional expenses due to the implementation of the compact. Any addition expense would be funded from existing revenues.

Explanation of Local Revenues:
